4. Complaint handling process

4.1. Receipt and registration of a complaint

The Service Provider shall immediately register all consumer complaints received and provide them with a unique identifier. The Service Provider shall send a confirmation of receipt of the complaint to the Consumer – if the Consumer's contact details are available – no later than 8 working days after receipt.

4.2. Complaint investigation

The Service Provider shall examine the complaint immediately after receipt, but no later than 30 days, and shall provide a substantive response.

If immediate investigation of the complaint is not possible, the Service Provider shall record the complaint and its position on it, which it shall make available to the Consumer.

4.3. Response to the complaint

The Service Provider shall communicate the substantive response to the complaint to the Consumer in writing (by e-mail or post). The response shall include:

- the result of the assessment of the complaint,
- the measure and justification for the remedy or rejection of the complaint,
- if the complaint is rejected: the Consumer shall be informed of the authority or conciliation body with which the complaint may be initiated, as well as the seat, telephone and internet contact details and mailing address of the competent authority or conciliation body.

5. Record keeping

The Service Provider shall keep a record of the consumer complaints received, which shall include:

- the name, address or e-mail address of the Consumer,
- the place, time and method of submitting the complaint,
- a detailed description of the Consumer's complaint, a list of the documents, records and other evidence presented by the Consumer,
- the Service Provider's statement regarding the complaint,
- the measure and deadline for remedying or rejecting the complaint,
- the place and time of recording the record.

The Service Provider shall keep the record of the complaint and a copy of the substantive response to the complaint for 3 years in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations, and shall present it to the supervisory authorities upon request.

6. Legal remedies
